How to capture praise or measure

The full round of these four years

How to recreate its pleasure

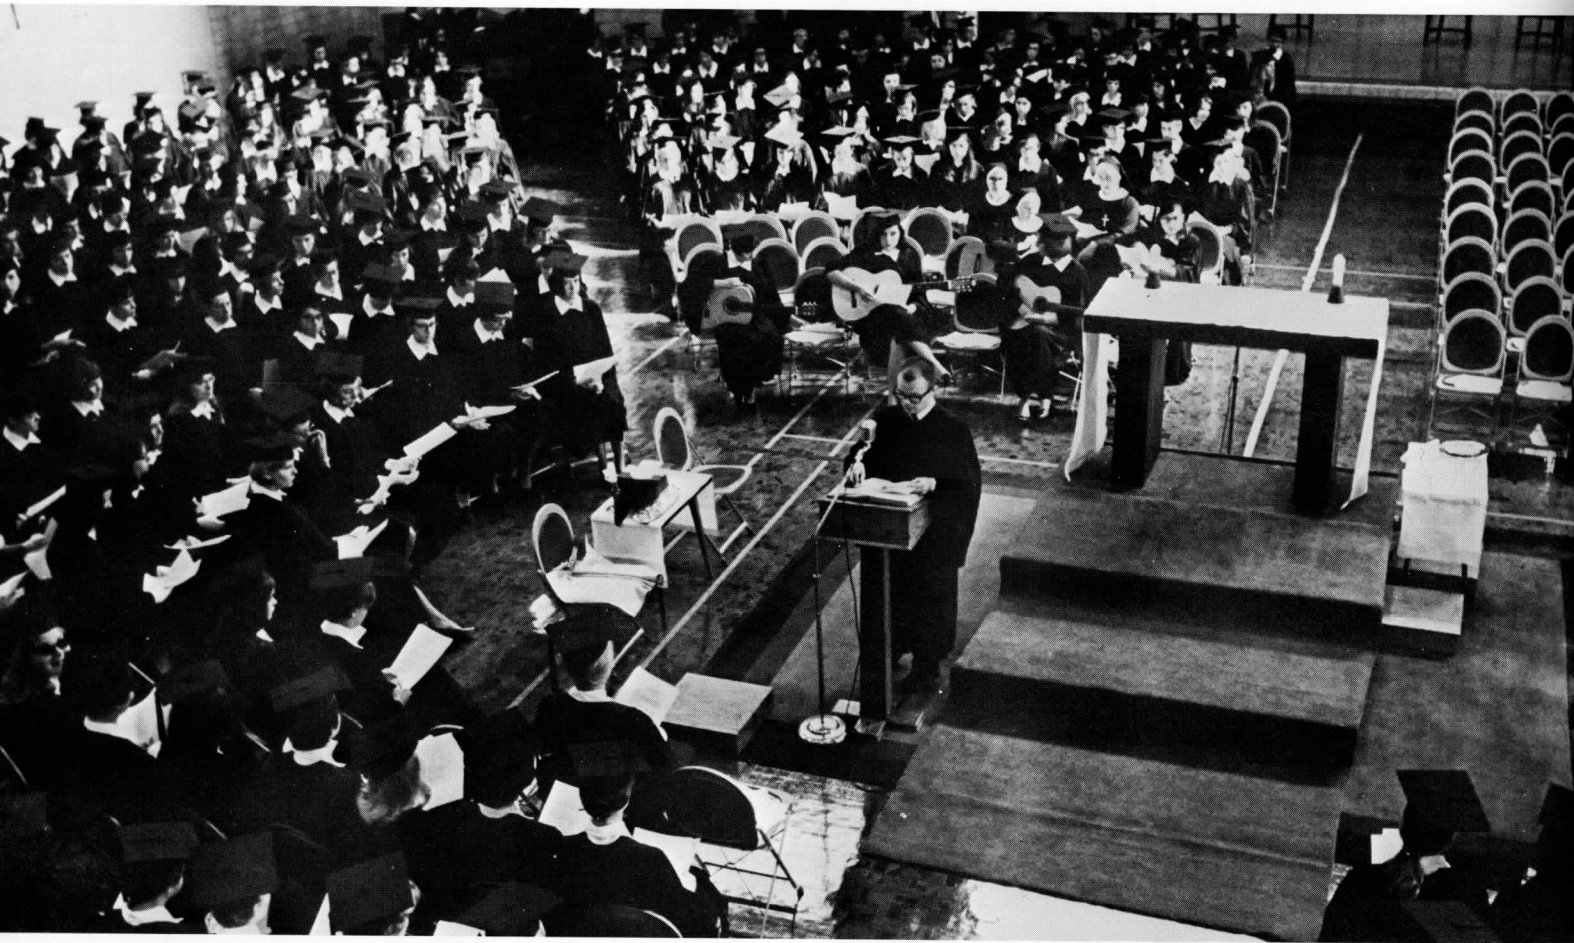

And not in moments called by day and night

And not in moments marked by place and thing.

*If you want good days
it is best to order them
a year at a time.*

Above the rasp of
plastic playing cards Between the beats of background rhythm
I hear gay shrieks
intense argument
aimless banter
And as I bend my head I see good friends reflected in a coffee cup.

Father Soares

And through it all we slide and plow
Cramming, planning
Stacking facts
With no time to spare
to stop and stall
And wonder how to get through it all.
